ROYAL TREATMENTS

The Royal Treatments have been developed exclusively for Thai Square Spa. The heritage of these beautiful therapies dates from the late 19th and early 20th century when Thailand was known as the Kingdom of Siam. At this time, 'ladies of the court' were renowned for turning indigenous ingredients into delicate formulations and beauty regimes, still admired to this day.

Thai Square Spa presents 6 exclusive treatments inspired by the ancient Siamese heritage.

FACIAL TREATMENTS

MAJESTIC JADE FACIAL - 90 mins

This men's only treatment combines the mystical powers of the Jade semi-precious stone with the science of collagen. Your facial journey begins with secret Thai pressure point massage on the scalp and hands followed by a purifying hot face towel compress. A full facial massage follows to stimulate the circulation and promote a healthy glow. Collagen is then massaged into the face and neck using the jade stone to counteract dullness and smooth fine lines and wrinkles and collagen patches are applied to the eyes. The collagen nourishes the skin at its deeper layers and stimulates elasticity. The Jade stone heals the mind and soul. The facial ends with a Buddhist inspired breathing exercise to promote ultimate calm and well-being.

GOLDEN MAHARANI FACIAL - 90 mins

Inspired by the natural beauty of the ancient Siamese woman, this exquisite treatment leaves skin glowing with radiant health and vitality. After a scrupulous cleanse, enjoy a revitalising Jasmine based exfoliation before firming Thai herbal compresses are gently pressed into the skin to stimulate facial acupressure points. The 24-carat Pure Gold Collagen Mask is at the heart of treatment and plumps up the skin with its beautiful blend of opulent ingredients that deeply hydrate and nurture dull, dehydrated and more mature complexions. Enjoy a mini head and shoulder massage as this luxurious mask helps stimulate collagen production and leaves skin with a lit-from-within golden glow.

BODY TREATMENTS

SIAMESE COURTIER'S REMEDY - 150 min

A traditional therapy of the Thai Court.

This treatment has been developed using the secret beauty rituals of the Siamese courtiers. It is both uplifting, yet leaves the mind and body completely relaxed. The Thai body ritual begins with a sweet scented scrub to revitalise, followed by a royal Thai massage using a hot herbal compress to release muscle tension and stimulate circulation.

THAI HERBAL CEREMONY - 150 mins

Invigorating oil massage.

The treatment begins with a herbal steam and full body cleanse to prepare the skin for exfoliation. A light, ginger-scented scrub leaves limbs soft and glowing. A unique Thai herbal massage based on ancient Siamese rituals completes the third phase of this treatment. Extracts of cinnamon, black pepper and camphor are beautifully blended in the massage oil, leaving muscles relaxed and your senses invigorated.

TEMPLE OF JADE - 120 mins

Four-handed, hot Jade Stone body massage.

Jade has long been considered a symbol of beauty, power and good health within the court of Siam. Due to its high silica content, it is believed to strengthen the function of the kidneys, liver and heart, reduce inflammation and increase blood circulation. Using two expert therapists this 'four-hand' treatment begins with a head massage that features acupressure techniques. The body is then enveloped in warm scented oils. The heat from the Jade stones relaxes the muscles enabling a deeper massage. You are left feeling completely rejuvenated, with mind and body in total harmony.
